“ To my dearest Daddy -

Although we've had our share of struggles and differences, you were and always will be a great dad. I'll never forget my childhood spent playing catch with you in the backyard or floating in the lazy river at Geauga Lake. "Balloon Land" will always be my favorite bedtime story and the "Pete and RePete" joke still puts a smile on my face.

I am so grateful that you were able to see me graduate from college, marry the man of my dreams and meet my two amazing little boys.

As I promised you before you passed, Mommy will be well taken care of and I know you'll be with us every step of the way.

Thank you so much for waiting for us to come and say goodbye. We truly know that this was not the way you wanted to live and I'm at peace knowing that you made it to Heaven in a happy way. Give Grandma and Aunt RO big hugs and kisses and please watch over all of us down here.

Forever in my heart with all my love in the world.

*I love you Daddy.

“ My greatest memories of my brother is as kids he used to follow me when I went out and I never once got upset. I enjoyed his company. We grew apart as we matured but he will always be my little brother. Rest in peace bro, I love you.

“ Dear Mrs.Chegar: Although I never met Mr, Chegar he seemed like a person who loved life and people. No doubt you are feeling a lot of mixed emotions. Please know that Psalms 46:1 says that "God is a refuge and strength, A very present help in trouble times". May God daily carry your loads.
