“ Jorry was a great mind that was full of creation and ingenuity. He didn't like to be held back by rules, but would in the end understand and follow through. We had many conversations that ended in laughter. He had a very strong loving vibrant personality that will be missed by his work family, and yes, he was truly a family member within us. God Bless you Jorry may you be riding on Angel wings enjoying eternity.

“ I have wanted to express my sadness over Jorry's passing. I followed the story from the very beginning, checked the website daily for updates or ways to help and prayed for his safe return as I know many did. It was clear to me he was a very special person to your family and I am sure to everyone who knew him felt the same. I know I will remember him now even though I never had the pleasure of knowing him.
