“ My heart is saddened with Mark's passing but I am a better person for having the awesome honor of calling him my dear friend and co-worker. Ianazones will not be the same without him. Truly the most warm-hearted, honest, compassionate, funny and genuine person I know. Godspeed. I know you have already been welcomed with open arms in Heaven. My deepest condolences to his loving & awesome family. Then had a great hand in shaping Mark into the fine man he is.

“ So Much we don't understand about life. The spirit world is more real Than this flesh we can feel and see. Everything That God made was called out of the spirit world into existence. He spoke it into existence. I was in the window the other day marveling at God's Handy work, The birds chirping,trees growing, The squirrels Doing there daily chores all taught by who? They don't read books! Yet we have a Book Called the Bible(Basic Instructions Before Leaving Earth) which we find hard to believe, Change, and Modify to fit our system of thinking and Believing! God Knew We couldn't follow these demands so he sent His Son for just that purpose. That If we except His Son as Our savior, He would Take our place on The cross we should HAVE DIED ON FOR OUR SINS! Now..... When we trust him, We have access to God's Kingdom. No works Necessary Just Take Him at His Word....And Then Like our loved ones...Get whisked away Just as My Brother Mark did!! If you could hear him now Imagine the message he could Tell you!

“ Mark was a very dear friend that I had the honor of knowing for quiet a few years. He could always make you smile and always had a kind word to say about everyone. He was a very kind and sincere person. Mark was truly ready to meet god. Prayers go out to his family.

“ For which cause we faint not: but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day. For the things which are seen are temporal: but the things which are not seen are eternal...I
Cor. 16:18

To the family of Mark K. Oliver, we would like to offer our sincerest sympathy. Weeping may endure for just a night but joy cometh in the morning. God knows all, sees all, and hears all. He has not left us comfortless. Cast all your cares on him for he careth for you.

This world is not our home, he has prepared a place for us and if we live according to his perfect will, we will be with him.

There is no doubt that Jesus is on his way back, so don't let it be said too late, don't let him catch you with your works undone, be ready when he comes.

We are praying that God will see you through with His covering of strength and love. Jesus said "Peace I leave with you...Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid."(John 14:27)

To the Oliver family, be encouraged, hold on to the Lord's unchanging hand and he will comfort you in this time of bereavement. You are in our hearts and prayers.

Humbly submitted,

“ Dear Mr and Mrs. Oliver, I don't know if you remember me but I used to work at Rite Aid and always waited on you. This was a few years ago in the pharmacy. I wanted to express my deepest sympathy and the loss of your son. I always saw him in the gas station and asked him about you. What a special person he was and will be missed by all. My prayers for you and your family. RIP Mark, I know you will be missed. Martha Peters
