“ I remember Robert as a great guy...we actually rode the bus together and we would sit together and just talk about nothing but it passed the time for the long trip home. He will be missed deeply and and I just want to send out my condolences to his family!

“ I lived across the street from Bobby for most of my life until they moved when I was in high school. Bobby was always an awesome friend and somewhat of a big brother (along with Scott and Chris, can't leave them out lol) and we would always have fun in the summers, just playing volleyball or just hanging out on the front porch. He will be dearly missed and always remembered. My prayers and condolences go out to the family, and know that your son/brother made my time growing up on Highland Ave. really fun. :)
