“ This is very hard to write as I reflect on the many years that I knew this wonderful woman. It is unimaginable to be writing her in the past tense. She IS the person who convinced me to start at any early age to get mammograms because of her own early battles. She IS the first one to nickname me Kimmer. She IS a person that I looked up to as far as career, personality, and being an all-around great friend. I read once before that you will run into many casual acquaintances in your life, but true friends are like a diamond – flawless and shines brightly – and Terri you shined SO BRIGHT! You were so much too many people. You were a role model, an amazing friend, you listened – even though you liked to give your opinion on occasion you lived by the rule of having two ears and one mouth – you listened so much more than you spoke. Terri is one who never judged a person, she cared about you unconditionally. It did not matter what your net worth was - she treated people by the Golden Rule. She IS truly a one in a million person and I am blessed to have had the privilege to call her friend!

“ Terri and I shared many wonderful times together. Even though we are not related, she always considered me her sister, and the same here. She is a wonderful person with such a heart. Just wanted to take care of everyone and be there for everyone. Making life fun and so real at the same time. Truly an angel here on earth. I am so blessed to have met her in this life. I know she is an angel on my side. Love you Terri, Thank you.

I will always remember the great times we had in high school and beyond. I am honored to have called her my friend. I'm only sorry that we lost touch over the years. You are all in my prayers.
