William C. Flath, 87, of Warren, died Friday, June 4, 2010 at Mahoning Valley Hospital. He was born March 20, 1923 in Cleveland, the son of Leonard and Sarah Jane (Cooper) Flath, and had lived in the Warren area most of his life.

Mr. Flath graduated from Warren G. Harding High School, earned a bachelor's degree from Youngstown State University, and a master's degree from Kent State University. He taught for 27 years in the Warren City Schools, retiring in 1978. A World War II veteran of the U.S. Army, he served in Africa and Italy, and in recent years was honored locally in a Memorial Day parade. A member of First United Methodist Church, he enjoyed the Browns, the Indians, all Warren G. Harding High School sports, especially football, and anything to do with World War II.

Surviving is his wife, Elizabeth Jean (Atkin) Flath, whom he married August 17, 2002. His parents precede him in death.

Services are 12:00 noon Tuesday, June 8, 2010 at McFarland & Son Funeral Home, with Rev. Rick Oaks officiating. Interment will follow at Oakwood Cemetery. Friends may call 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon Tuesday at the funeral home. Material contributions may be made to First United Methodist Church, 309 N. Park Ave., Warren, Ohio 44481.

Arrangements are entrusted to McFarland & Son Funeral Services Co., 271 N. Park Ave., Warren, Ohio 44481. Please visit www.mcfarlandfuneral.com to view this obituary and send condolences.

“ My sincerest condolence to the family of Mr. Flath. I have so many fond memories of him when I was a student in his sixth grade class at Dickey Avenue School. The one thing that stands out for me, is how he always smiled in our classroom. Being 59 yrs old myself, I have never forgotten Mr. Flath and what a really nice teacher he was. It was my first time having a male teacher and that was a little intimidating for me at first; but that daily smile made me feel secure and happy to have him. God bless you and god bless Mr. Flath
